

I personally believe that by allowing a full monopoly of television and radio by mass media companies is outrageous. Those companies would have full control over what the public sees and hears. There would be not counter views expressed by other members of the media. The news and radio are supposed to be used to give people the full details of important problems in society, not what a single person wants the public to see.